

THE CAUCASIAN.

Entered according to Postal Laws at Clinton, N. C., as second class mail matter.

CLINTON, N. C., — AUG. 1, 1889.

THE CAUCASIAN'S RECORD.
CIRCULATION: 1,555.
One year ago it was less than 800.
During the last 14 weeks we have mailed over 25,000 copies.
Advertisers think of this.

John L. Sullivan gets $12,000 for whipping Jake Kilrain. A fight between Sullivan and Jim Smith, the English champion, is now talked of. Sullivan's backers are eager for the fight.

The International Centennial in New York in 1892 is now being spoken of. It would be the proper thing, we think, to celebrate the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America in that way.

Sullivan, the most celebrated living Bostonian, has fled to Canada. Now keep him there, — Wilmington Messenger.

What a slander on Boston if she places the same estimate on the pet of the "Hub of the Universe."

"A fifty per cent tariff and American wages for American workers" is the lying slogan held up by the monopolist while he gradually cuts down the wages of his employees. Surely it will not take the voters of the country much longer to learn the trick.

Clinton is a pleasant town in one of North Carolina's best Eastern counties, — Wilmington Messenger.

Thanks, Bro. Kingsbury, but you must visit our pleasant, cool, shady, breezy and delightful little town to fully appreciate it. The latch-string to our hospitality could not hang out to a more welcome guest.

The Encampment issue of the Wilmington Messenger has been received. It is a creditable effort, containing sketches of a part of the companies of the State Guard, together with a general write up of the pleasure resorts around Wilmington. The enterprising Messenger always succeeds in its undertakings.

It is reported that there are three negroes in Georgia who claim to be the Trinity, one the Father, another the Son, and another the Holy Ghost. The Son, or Messiah, as he claims to be, goes about absolutely nude and preaches polygamy, sacrificing, the destruction of money, etc. The mob that follows after is said to be the terror of the community in which it takes up its abode.
